JEPHTHAH'S DAUGHTER, SARAH'S SON

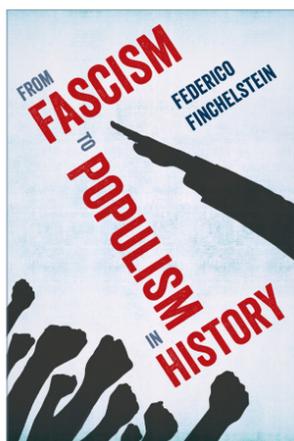

The Death of Children in Late Antiquity

Maria E. Doerfler

"Doerfler paints vibrant portraits of how late antique Christian communities responded to children's deaths and parental grief, reading their lives and experiences through the accounts of biblical heroes and heroines faced with tragedy. Both vivid and clear, this book will appeal to many readers." —Caroline T. Schroeder, author of Monastic Bodies: Discipline and Salvation in Shenoute of Atripe

FROM FASCISM TO POPULISM IN HISTORY

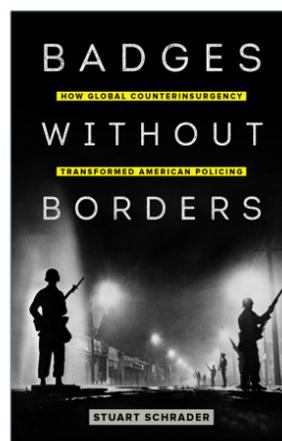

Federico Finchelstein

New in paperback

"Finchelstein's book is perhaps the best recent analysis of a phenomenon that is at the core of our century's political history. It is an outstanding study – forceful, profound, and erudite. Thanks to exemplary scholarship, the reader learns that there is no society that is immune to the dangers usually associated with Europe and South America." —Zeev Sternhell, author of The Birth of Fascist Ideology: From Cultural Rebellion to Political Revolution.

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN ON TRUTH AND ITS COUNTERFEITS

A Guide for Our Times

Reinhard Hütter

John Henry Newman, in his own context of the nineteenth century, faced the same challenges as we do today; the problems then and now differ in degree, not in kind. Hence, Newman's engagement with these problems offers us a prescient and indeed prophetic diagnosis of what these problems or errors, if not corrected, will lead to – consequences which have more or less come to pass – and, furthermore, an alternative way which is at once thoroughly Catholic and holds contemporary relevance.
